UNITED NATIONS COMMISSION ON INTERNATIONAL TRADE LAW

UNCITRAL Legislative Guide on Secured Transactions

UNITED NATIONS
New York, 2010

Contents

	Paragraphs	Page
Preface		iii
Introduction	1-89	1
A. Purpose of the Guide	1-14	1
B. Terminology and interpretation	15-20	4
C. Examples of financing practices covered in the Guide	21-42	13
1. Inventory and equipment acquisition financing	22-27	13
2. Inventory and receivable revolving loan financing	28-30	15
3. Factoring	31-34	16
4. Securitization	35-37	16
5. Term-loan financing	38-40	17
6. Credit secured by a transfer of title	41-42	18
D. Key objectives and fundamental policies of an effective and efficient secured transactions regime	43-72	18
1. General	43-45	18
2. Key objectives	46-59	19
3. Fundamental policies	60-72	22
E. Implementing a new secured transactions law	73-89	26
1. General	73-75	26
2. Harmonization with existing law	76-79	27
3. Issues of legislative method and drafting technique	80-83	28
4. Issues relating to post-enactment acculturation	84-89	29
F. Recommendation 1		30
I. Scope of application, basic approaches to secured transactions and general themes common to all chapters of the Guide	1-122	31
A. General remarks	1-122	31
1. Introduction	1	31
2. Scope of application	2-44	31
3. Basic approaches to secured transactions	45-112	42
4. Two key themes common to all chapters of the Guide	113-122	58
B. Recommendations 2-12		61
II. Creation of a security right (effectiveness as between the parties)	1-128	65
A. General remarks	1-102	65
1. Introduction	1-11	65
2. Creation of a security right (effectiveness as between the parties)	12-25	67
3. Essential elements of a security agreement	26-29	71
4. Form of a security agreement	30-33	72
5. Parties to a security agreement	34-37	73

		Paragraphs	Page
6.	Obligations secured by a security agreement	38-48	74
7.	Assets subject to a security agreement	49-71	77
8.	Creation of a security right in proceeds	72-85	83
9.	Commingled proceeds	86-89	87
10.	Tangible assets commingled in a mass	90-92	88
11.	Tangible assets commingled in a product	93-95	89
12.	Creation or continuation of a security right in an attachment	96-99	90
13.	Creation or continuation of a security right in a mass or product	100-102	91
B.	Asset-specific remarks	103-128	91
1.	Effectiveness of a bulk assignment of receivables and an assignment of a future receivable or a part of or an undivided interest in a receivable	103-105	91
2.	Effectiveness of an assignment of receivables made despite an anti-assignment clause	106-110	92
3.	Creation of a security right in a personal or property right securing a receivable, a negotiable instrument or any other intangible asset	111-122	93
4.	Creation of a security right in a right to payment of funds credited to a bank account	123-125	96
5.	Creation of a security right in a right to receive the proceeds under an independent undertaking	126-127	96
6.	Creation of a security right in a negotiable document or a tangible asset covered by a negotiable document	128	97
C.	Recommendations 13-28		97
III.	Effectiveness of a security right against third parties	1-158	103
A.	General remarks	1-127	103
1.	Introduction	1-4	103
2.	Basic policy issues	5-28	104
3.	Registration in a general security rights registry	29-46	110
4.	Possession	47-66	114
5.	Registration in a specialized registry or notation on a title certificate	67-86	119
6.	Automatic third-party effectiveness of a security right in proceeds	87-96	124
7.	Third-party effectiveness of a security right in attachments	97-107	127
8.	Automatic third-party effectiveness of a security right in a mass or product	108-116	130
9.	Continued third-party effectiveness of a security right after a change in the location of the asset or the grantor	117-119	132
10.	Continuity and lapse of third-party effectiveness	120-127	133
B.	Asset-specific remarks	128-158	135
1.	Third-party effectiveness of a security right in a personal or property right securing payment of a receivable, negotiable instrument or any other intangible asset	128-137	135
2.	Third-party effectiveness of a security right in a right to payment of funds credited to a bank account	138-148	137

		Paragraphs	Page
	3. Third-party effectiveness of a security right in a right to receive the proceeds under an independent undertaking	149-153	140
	4. Third-party effectiveness of a security right in a negotiable document or tangible assets covered by a negotiable document	154-158	141
	C. Recommendations 29-53		142
IV.	The registry system	1-117	149
	A. General remarks	1-117	149
	1. Introduction	1-6	149
	2. Operational framework of the registry	7-46	150
	3. Security and integrity of the registry record	47-54	161
	4. Responsibility for loss or damage	55-64	163
	5. Required content of the registered notice	65-97	165
	6. Advance registration and one registration for multiple security rights	98-101	174
	7. Time of effectiveness of registration of a notice or amendment	102-105	175
	8. Authority for registration	106	176
	9. Cancellation or amendment of a registered notice	107-116	176
	10. Specialized registries	117	178
	B. Recommendations 54-75		178
V.	Priority of a security right	1-169	185
	A. General remarks	1-150	185
	1. Introduction	1-10	185
	2. The domain of priority	11-19	187
	3. Approaches to drafting priority rules	20-26	190
	4. Different foundations upon which priority may be determined	27-41	191
	5. Rules for determining priority as among competing claimants	42-124	194
	6. Scope and interpretation of priority rules	125-150	218
	B. Asset-specific remarks	151-169	225
	1. Priority of a security right in a negotiable instrument	154-156	225
	2. Priority of a security right in a right to payment of funds credited to a bank account	157-163	226
	3. Priority of a security right in money	164	227
	4. Priority of a security right in a right to receive the proceeds under an independent undertaking	165-166	228
	5. Priority of a security right in a negotiable document or tangible assets covered by a negotiable document	167-169	228
	C. Recommendations 76-109		229
VI.	Rights and obligations of the parties to a security agreement	1-80	237
	A. General remarks	1-68	237
	1. Introduction	1-7	237
	2. Party autonomy	8-15	238
	3. Mandatory pre-default rules	16-39	240

		Paragraphs	Page
4.	Non-mandatory pre-default rules	40-46	246
5.	Typical non-mandatory pre-default rules	47-68	248
B.	Asset-specific remarks	69-80	253
1.	Representations of the assignor	73	254
2.	Right to notify the debtor of the receivable	74-75	255
3.	Right to payment of the receivable	76-80	255
C.	Recommendations 110-116		257
VII.	Rights and obligations of third-party obligors	1-45	259
A.	General remarks	1-45	259
1.	Introduction	1-6	259
2.	Effect of a security right on the obligations of a third-party obligor	7-45	260
B.	Recommendations 117-130		271
VIII.	Enforcement of a security right	1-112	275
A.	General remarks	1-92	275
1.	Introduction	1-9	275
2.	General principles of enforcement	10-36	277
3.	Procedural steps preceding enforcement and the rights of the grantor	37-48	286
4.	Extrajudicial enforcement of the rights of the secured creditor	49-73	290
5.	Effects of enforcement	74-81	298
6.	Enforcement of a security right in proceeds	82-84	301
7.	Intersection of movable and immovable property enforcement regimes	85-89	302
8.	Enforcement of a security right in an attachment to movable assets, a mass or a product	90-92	304
B.	Asset-specific remarks	93-112	305
1.	General	93	305
2.	Enforcement of a security right in a receivable	94-98	305
3.	Enforcement in the case of an outright transfer of a receivable	99-101	306
4.	Enforcement of a security right in a negotiable instrument	102-104	307
5.	Enforcement of a security right in a right to payment of funds credited to a bank account	105-108	308
6.	Enforcement of a security right in a right to receive the proceeds under an independent undertaking	109-110	309
7.	Enforcement of a security right in a negotiable document or tangible assets covered by a negotiable document	111-112	310
C.	Recommendations 131-177		310
IX.	Acquisition financing	1-213	319
A.	General remarks	1-213	319
1.	Introduction	1-5	319
2.	Terminology and diversity of forms of acquisition financing	6-12	320
3.	Commercial background	13-43	321

		Paragraphs	Page
4.	Approaches to financing the acquisition of tangible assets	44-59	329
5.	Key policy choices	60-84	333
6.	Creation (effectiveness as between the parties)	85-95	339
7.	Effectiveness against third parties	96-115	342
8.	Priority	116-182	347
9.	Pre-default rights and obligations of the parties	183-187	366
10.	Enforcement	188-196	367
11.	Conflict of laws	197-200	370
12.	Transition	201-205	371
13.	Insolvency	206-213	372
B.	Recommendations 178-202		374
X.	Conflict of laws	1-87	383
A.	General remarks	1-82	383
1.	Introduction	1-9	383
2.	Scope of conflict-of laws rules	10-14	385
3.	Conflict-of-laws rules for the creation, third-party effectiveness and priority of a security right	15-27	386
4.	Law applicable to the creation, third-party effectiveness and priority of a security right in a tangible asset	28-38	389
5.	Law applicable to the creation, third-party effectiveness and priority of a security right in an intangible asset	39-54	392
6.	Law applicable to the creation, third-party effectiveness and priority of a security right in proceeds	55-60	396
7.	Law applicable to the rights and obligations of the parties to the security agreement	61	397
8.	Law applicable to the rights and obligations of third-party obligors	62-63	398
9.	Law applicable to the enforcement of a security right	64-72	398
10.	Rules and relevant time for the determination of location	73-78	401
11.	Public policy and internationally mandatory rules	79	402
12.	Impact of commencement of insolvency proceedings on the law applicable to security rights	80-82	402
B.	Specific remarks concerning multi-unit States	83-87	403
C.	Recommendations 203-227		404
XI.	Transition	1-33	411
A.	General remarks	1-33	411
1.	Introduction	1-3	411
2.	Effective date of the new law	4-6	412
3.	General approach to acquired rights	7-12	413
4.	Issues to be addressed by transition provisions	13-33	414
B.	Recommendations 228-234		420
XII.	The impact of insolvency on a security right	1-67	423
A.	General remarks	1-67	423
1.	Introduction	1-6	423
2.	Terminology	7-12	424

		Paragraphs	Page
3.	General principles concerning security rights in insolvency.	13	425
4.	Applicable law in insolvency proceedings	14-17	426
5.	Treatment of encumbered assets	18-36	427
6.	Post-commencement finance	37-38	431
7.	Treatment of contracts	39-42	432
8.	Avoidance proceedings	43-44	433
9.	Participation of secured creditors in insolvency proceedings	45-46	433
10.	Reorganization proceedings	47-53	434
11.	Expedited reorganization proceedings.	54-55	435
12.	Treatment of secured claims	56-58	436
13.	Ranking of secured claims.	59-63	437
14.	Acquisition financing.	64-66	438
15.	Receivables subject to an outright transfer before commencement	67	439
B. Recommendations			439
1.	UNCITRAL Legislative Guide on Insolvency Law: terminology and recommendations		439
2.	Additional insolvency recommendations		451

Annexes

I.	Terminology and recommendations of the UNCITRAL Legislative Guide on Secured Transactions	453
II.	Resolution of the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law and General Assembly resolution 63/121	535
A.	Resolution of the Commission	535
B.	General Assembly resolution 63/121	536
Index		539