UNITED NATIONS COMMISSION ON INTERNATIONAL TRADE LAW

UNCITRAL Legislative Guide on Secured Transactions

Supplement on Security Rights in Intellectual Property

UNITED NATIONS
New York, 2011

Contents

		Paragraphs	Page
Preface			iii
Introduction		1-52	1
A.	Purpose of the Supplement	1	1
B.	The interaction between secured transactions law and law relating to intellectual property	2-7	1
C.	Terminology	8-32	4
D.	Valuation of intellectual property to be encumbered	33-34	14
E.	Examples of financing practices relating to intellectual property	35-45	15
F.	Key objectives and fundamental policies	46-52	19
I.	Scope of application and party autonomy	53-76	23
A.	Broad scope of application	53-73	23
1.	Encumbered assets covered	54-55	23
2.	Transactions covered	56	24
3.	Outright transfers of intellectual property	57-59	24
4.	Limitations in scope	60-73	26
B.	Application of the principle of party autonomy to security rights in intellectual property	74-76	34
II.	Creation of a security right in intellectual property	77-120	35
A.	The concepts of creation and third-party effectiveness	77-79	35
B.	Functional, integrated and unitary concept of a security right	80-81	36
C.	Requirements for the creation of a security right in intellectual property	82-85	37

		Paragraphs	Page
D.	Rights of a grantor with respect to the intellectual property to be encumbered	86	39
E.	Distinction between a secured creditor and an owner with respect to intellectual property	87-88	40
F.	Types of encumbered asset in an intellectual property context	89-112	40
	1. Rights of an owner	91-96	41
	2. Rights of a licensor	97-105	43
	3. Rights of a licensee	106-107	47
	4. Tangible assets with respect to which intellectual property is used	108-112	48
G.	Security rights in future intellectual property	113-118	49
H.	Legal or contractual limitations on the transferability of intellectual property	119-120	51
	Recommendation 243		52
III.	Effectiveness of a security right in intellectual property against third parties	121-129	53
A.	The concept of third-party effectiveness	121-123	53
B.	Third-party effectiveness of security rights in intellectual property that are registered in an intellectual property registry	124-127	54
C.	Third-party effectiveness of security rights in intellectual property that are not registered in an intellectual property registry	128-129	56
IV.	The registry system	130-172	59
A.	The general security rights registry	130-131	59
B.	Asset-specific intellectual property registries	132-134	60
C.	Coordination of registries	135-140	61
D.	Registration of notices of security rights in future intellectual property	141-143	63
E.	Dual registration or search	144-154	64
F.	Time of effectiveness of registration	155-157	69

		Paragraphs	Page
G.	Impact of a transfer of encumbered intellectual property on the effectiveness of registration. . .	158-166	70
H.	Registration of security rights in trademarks . .	167-172	73
	Recommendation 244		76
V.	Priority of a security right in intellectual property .	173-221	77
A.	The concept of priority	173-174	77
B.	Identification of competing claimants	175-176	78
C.	Relevance of knowledge of prior transfers or security rights	177-178	79
D.	Priority of security rights in intellectual property that are not registered in an intellectual property registry	179-180	79
E.	Priority of security rights in intellectual property that are registered in an intellectual property registry	181-183	80
F.	Rights of transferees of encumbered intellectual property	184-187	82
G.	Rights of licensees in general	188-192	83
H.	Rights of certain licensees	193-212	85
I.	Priority of a security right in intellectual property granted by a licensor as against a security right granted by a licensee	213-218	91
J.	Priority of a security right in intellectual property as against the right of a judgement creditor.	219-220	93
K.	Subordination	221	94
	Recommendation 245		94
VI.	Rights and obligations of the parties to a security agreement relating to intellectual property.	222-223	95
A.	Application of the principle of party autonomy	222	95
B.	Preservation of the encumbered intellectual property	223-226	95
	Recommendation 246		97

		Paragraphs	Page
VII.	Rights and obligations of third-party obligors in intellectual property financing transactions	227-228	99
VIII.	Enforcement of a security right in intellectual property	229-253	101
	A. Interaction of secured transactions law and law relating to intellectual property	229-232	101
	B. Enforcement of a security right relating to different types of intellectual property	233-234	102
	C. Taking possession of documents necessary for the enforcement of a security right in intellectual property	235-236	103
	D. Disposition of encumbered intellectual property	237-238	104
	E. Rights acquired through disposition of encumbered intellectual property	239-241	105
	F. Proposal by the secured creditor to acquire the encumbered intellectual property	242	106
	G. Collection of royalties and other licence fees	243	106
	H. Licensor's other contractual rights	244	107
	I. Enforcement of security rights in tangible assets with respect to which intellectual property is used	245-248	107
	J. Enforcement of a security right in a licensee's rights	249-253	109
IX.	Acquisition financing in an intellectual property context	254-283	111
	A. Introduction	254-255	111
	B. Unitary approach	256-279	112
	1. Third-party effectiveness and priority of an acquisition security right in intellectual property	259-263	113
	2. Priority of an acquisition security right registered in an intellectual property registry	264-268	115

		Paragraphs	Page
	3. Priority of an acquisition security right in proceeds of encumbered intellectual property	269-272	118
	4. Examples illustrating how the acquisition financing recommendations of the Guide could apply in an intellectual property context	273-279	120
	C. Non-unitary approach	280-283	123
	Recommendation 247		124
X.	Law applicable to a security right in intellectual property	284-339	127
	A. Law applicable to property matters	284-337	127
	1. Purpose and scope	284-289	127
	2. The approach recommended in the Guide with respect to security rights in intangible assets	290-296	129
	3. The law of the State of protection (lex protectionis)	297-300	132
	4. Other approaches	301-317	133
	5. Examples for a comparative analysis of the various approaches	318-337	139
	B. Law applicable to contractual matters	338-339	146
	Recommendation 248		147
XI.	Transition	340-344	149
XII.	The impact of insolvency of a licensor or licensee of intellectual property on a security right in that party's rights under a licence agreement	345-367	151
	A. General	345-353	151
	B. Insolvency of the licensor	354-362	154
	C. Insolvency of the licensee	363-366	157
	D. Summary	367	158

Annexes

Page

I. Terminology and recommendations of the UNCITRAL Legislative Guide on Secured Transactions: Supplement on Security Rights in Intellectual Property 161

A. Terminology 161

B. Recommendations 243-248 161

II. Decision of the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law and General Assembly resolution 65/23 165

A. Decision of the Commission 165

B. General Assembly resolution 65/23 167