Security and Cooperation in the South China Sea
P.K. Ghosh
The Role of External Powers in the South China Sea Region:
Seeking a Peaceful Resolution ........................................... 153

S.D. Pradhan
South China Sea Disputes in the Current Security Environment –
Net Assessment ............................................................... 169

Evgeny Kanaev
China’s and the US’ Approaches to the South China Sea
Issue: Changing Patterns and Strategic Implications ............. 198

Vladimir Korsun
The Evolution of Approaches of the Chinese Leadership to the Problems of Present-Day Borders of the PRC............. 212

IV. Legal Issues in the South China Sea Dispute

Erik Franckx and Marco Benatar
The Argumentation on the Weight in the Law of Map Evidence of the Chinese U-Line in the South China Sea Refined .......... 224

Ian Storey
Arctic Lessons: What the South China Sea Claimants can Learn from Cooperation in the High North.......................... 240

Roberto Tofani
A Look at the Dispute in the South China Sea through the Media ........................................................................... 269

V. The Prospects of Making Peace and Stability in Southeast Asia

Masahiro Akiyama
How to Handle Disputes in the South China Sea................... 282

Dmitry Mosyakov
The Conflict in the South China Sea and Possible Ways to Resolve It ..................................................................... 292

Ekaterina Koldunova
Possibilities and Limitations of Regional Institutions for Cooperation in the Resolution of Regional Security
Problems in Southeast Asia ................................................ 298